

OCCUPY BUSINESS SCHOOL!

From Occupy Wall Street, to a national tour! Sander Hicks shares secrets you need to start a politically-engaged, community-building business.

This is bare knuckle, real-world wisdom and economics. It's life-coaching for the revolution, from one of progressive America's most dynamic public speakers.

Based on his experiences as founder of Soft Skull Press and Vox Pop inc., Hicks will teach:

- How to raise over $500K for progressive social ventures.
- How to blend activism and entrepreneurship.
- The truth about the US Economy.
- The reforms US Capitalism must embrace.
- And much more!
